Subject: European RoHS Directive Compliance

Dear Sir/ Madam,

ITW Construction Products Italy s.r.l. would like to inform its customers that a significant part of its products is already compliant to European Directive 2002/95/EC RoHS.

ITW Elematic is now working to guarantee compliance for all remaining products within the term of July 2006 imposed by the a.m. Directive.

For declarations concerning specific products, please contact our Sales Support.

Best Regards

Chiara Cascone
